

Applications are now being accepted for the:

Honda Foundation/National Science Bowl® Community College Scholarship

Funding provided by the Honda Foundation

Scholarship Overview

- Students must attend a two year COMMUNITY COLLEGE and be enrolled full-time
- Tuition and mandatory nonrefundable fees will be paid for two years, up to $2500 per year, given satisfactory academic progress and availability of funding.
- Students are eligible for a paid 10-week summer research internship at a DOE National Laboratory

Eligibility Criteria

- Must have participated in a DOE National Science Bowl® high school REGIONAL event at least once during high school.
- Be a U.S. Citizen or legal permanent resident.
- Have a career goal in the sciences, engineering, mathematics, or teaching.
- Have a scheduled high school graduation date in Spring of 2011.
- Must be 18 years of age before starting summer internship.
- No minimum requirements for SAT/ACT or GPA will be required by the program; however, applicants must be able to demonstrate academic success and integrity throughout their high school career.

Key Dates
Applications open	November 19, 2010
Application deadline	March 31, 2011
Final selections announced	June 1, 2011

Information related to the scholarship and access to the application is available on the NSB® website. See website link: "Science Bowl Scholarship to Attend a Community College", or open the following link: <http://www.scied.science.doe.gov/nsb/scholarship.htm>